

Israel Academic Travel Awards 2015

Global Affairs, Judaic Studies, and Middle East Studies are pleased to announce a competition for four awards for academic study in Israel in the summer of 2015. The deadline for application is April 20, 2015. The competition is open to UConn undergraduate and graduate students.

Each award of $1500 may be used to defray expenses such as airfare and registration costs. Awardees will submit a written summary of their travel experience by September 15, 2015.

Please go to judaicstudies.uconn.edu for application details.

This program is not open to current seniors graduating in May 2015, or to incoming students. Summer is defined according to the UConn calendar (end of May through end of August).
